2016 MEDAL OF HONOR AWARD FOR A NON-LAWYER
KEVIN GAY
FOUNDER & CEO
OPERATION NEW HOPE

Jacksonville native Kevin Gay left the corporate world and founded Operation New Hope in 1999 to help rebuild Jacksonville's challenged urban communities and give ex-offenders the opportunity to successfully transition home and lead productive lives. Operation New Hope is a faith-based nonprofit community development corporation with a two-pronged business model that includes the development of affordable housing and workforce development that focuses in on the reintegration of ex-offenders. In 2003, President George W. Bush selected Operation New Hope as the pilot site for the Ready4Work program, a prisoner re-entry program that has since been introduced in 16 U.S. cities and has been hailed by former President Bill Clinton and President Barack Obama. Participants attend a comprehensive four- to six-week career development training course featuring employment and life skills and are partnered with a case manager, who provides guidance and support, referrals for community assistance, life coaching and follow-up drug screening. While recidivism rates are nearly 70 percent within three years nationally, Jacksonville's Ready4Work program has a recidivism rate of less than 35 percent. Operation New Hope has helped more than 3,700 ex-offenders reenter their communities and workforce and has indirectly served their 7,200 children. In just over a decade it has restored or built close to 80 homes in the urban neighborhoods of Historic Springfield and East Jacksonville. Gay has received the Neighborhoods USA Notables Award, the Jacksonville Business Journal's Ultimate CEO Award, and the 2016 OneJax Humanitarian Award. He has served on the Florida Department of Corrections Prisoner Re-Entry Advisory Board, on President Barack Obama's Advisory Council for the White House Office of Faith-Based and Neighborhood Partnerships, and on the transition teams for Jacksonville mayors Alvin Brown and Lenny Curry.

2016 MEDAL OF HONOR AWARD FOR A LAWYER
KATHLEEN SCHIN MCLEROY
SHAREHOLDER
CARLTON FIELDS

A shareholder with Carlton Fields and a member of the Florida Commission on Access to Civil Justice, Tampa attorney Kathleen Schin McLeroy is being honored for her innovative ideas to increase Interest on Trust Accounts revenue, her successful efforts to preserve county funding for legal aid, her leadership of organizations supporting pro bono at the national, state and local level, as well as more than 20 years of pro bono service to clients. A past Florida Bar Foundation president, McLeroy has chaired Carlton Fields' nationally recognized pro bono committee since 1999; served four three-year terms on the Bay Area Legal Services board, including two terms as president; chaired the American Bar Association Business Law Section's Pro Bono Committee; served on the ABA Commission on Interest on Lawyers' Trust Accounts; and was a liaison to the ABA Standing Committee on Pro Bono and Public Service. She currently co-chairs The Florida Bar Standing Committee on Pro Bono Legal Services; serves on the Bar's Vision 2016 Commission; and chairs the inaugural board of the Florida Justice Technology Center, a statewide nonprofit created with a $725,000 Florida Bar Foundation grant to increase access to justice through the innovative use of technology. McLeroy helped bring about a change to the Florida Bar rule governing Florida's IOTA Program that has yielded tens of millions of dollars in additional IOTA revenue in Florida and has been replicated in 35 states. She also helped lobby the Florida legislature to retain county funding for legal aid, preserving $8 million in annual funding for Florida legal services programs. She has been recognized with The Florida Bar President's Pro Bono Service Award; the Hillsborough County Bar Association's Jimmy Kynes Award for Outstanding Pro Bono Service; and the Outstanding Pro Bono Service Award from the Hillsborough Attorney Volunteer Efforts Program. She was honored in 2001 with The Florida Bar Foundation's first President's Award for Excellence.

JANE ELIZABETH CURRAN DISTINGUISHED SERVICE AWARD
LYNN DRYSDALE
JACKSONVILLE AREA LEGAL AID

A staff attorney with Jacksonville Area Legal Aid, Lynn Drysdale is the first to receive the Jane Elizabeth Curran Distinguished Service Award since Curran received the inaugural award in 2015 in recognition of her 32 years of service as the Foundation's first executive director. Focusing on consumer protection advocacy, such as abuses in the payday lending industry, Drysdale is nationally recognized for her expertise in foreclosure defense and regularly testifies before the Florida House of Representatives and Senate, speaking on behalf of consumers and homeowners. Drysdale has testified before the U.S. Senate Banking, Housing and Urban Affairs Committee in its "Review of the Department of Defense's Report on Predatory Lending Practices Directed at Members of the Armed Forces and Their Dependents" and before the same Senate Committee relating to "Enhanced Consumer Financial Protections, After the Financial Crisis." She has testified multiple times at Federal Trade Commission workshops in Washington, D.C., relating to debt collection, as well as before the Federal Reserve Board at its hearing regarding the Home Ownership Equity Protection Act in Atlanta, Ga. Drysdale also has served as an adjunct consumer law professor at the University of Florida Levin College of Law.

PRESIDENT'S AWARD FOR EXCELLENCE

GREGORY W. COLEMAN
IMMEDIATE PAST PRESIDENT
THE FLORIDA BAR

Immediate Past President of The Florida Bar, Gregory W. Coleman has focused much of his leadership on access to justice. He helped found the Florida Commission on Access to Civil Justice, established by administrative order of Florida Chief Justice Jorge Labarga in November 2014, and serves on the commission as well as on the boards of The Florida Bar Foundation and the Florida Justice Technology Center and as a member of the American Bar Association House of Delegates. A partner with Critton, Luttier & Coleman in West Palm Beach, Coleman has been awarded the President's Award of Merit by The Florida Bar three times.

JAMES A. KOWALSKI, JR.
EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR
JACKSONVILLE AREA LEGAL AID

James A. Kowalski Jr. serves on the Florida Commission on Access to Civil Justice, on the Florida Courts Technology Commission and as president of the Project Director's Association for Florida's civil legal aid programs. A two-time recipient of The Florida Bar President's Pro Bono Service Award, Kowalski was named "Consumer Protection Lawyer of the Year" by The Florida Bar in 2011. He left private practice to become executive director of Jacksonville Area Legal Aid in 2012. UC-Berkeley presented him with its 2014 Peter E. Haas Public Service Award for his significant voluntary contributions to the betterment of American society.

STEVEN M. GOLDSTEIN AWARD FOR EXCELLENCE

The Steven M. Goldstein Award for Excellence was established by The Florida Bar Foundation in 1995 to honor the memory of Steven M. Goldstein. Goldstein, a former legal services attorney and professor of law at Florida State University College of Law, was respected nationally for his dedication to upholding the constitutional rights of those with unpopular causes. At the time of his death in 1994, at the age of 49, Goldstein was chair of the legal assistance for the poor grant committee and about to become secretary-treasurer of the Foundation. This competitive award recognizes a project of significant impact work undertaken by a Legal Assistance for the Poor grantee. To be eligible, the project must affect a substantial number of poor persons, address an important poverty-law issue, involve a significant commitment of grantee program resources and staff, and reflect legal work of a high professional level.

Winner	Florida Legal Services Medicaid Waiver HMOs for the Chronically Ill
First runner-up	Southern Legal Counsel Access to Courts for Indigent Litigants in the Sixth Judicial Circuit
Second runner-up.....	Florida State University Public Interest Law Center Protecting Chronic and Seriously Ill Children from Losing Health Services

AKERMAN LLP/MARIA E. HENDERSON/ WILLIAM A. VAN NORTWICK, JR. AD

KEYNOTE SPEAKER
JAMES J. SANDMAN
PRESIDENT
LEGAL SERVICES CORPORATION

James J. Sandman has been president of the Legal Services Corporation since 2011. He practiced law with Arnold & Porter LLP for 30 years and served as the firm's managing partner for a decade. From 2007 to 2011, he was general counsel for the District of Columbia Public Schools. Sandman is a past president of the 100,000-member District of Columbia Bar. He is currently the chair of the District of Columbia Circuit Judicial Conference Committee on Pro Bono Legal Services. He is a member of the District of Columbia Access to Justice Commission (by appointment of the District of Columbia Court of Appeals) and of the Pro Bono Institute's Law Firm Pro Bono Project Advisory Committee.

He is chairman of the U.S. Civil Rights Commission's District of Columbia State Advisory Committee, chairman of the board of the DC Campaign to Prevent Teen Pregnancy, vice chairman of the board of Washington Performing Arts, and a member of the boards of the Meyer Foundation, the College of Saint Rose, and Tahirih Justice Center. Sandman was named one of the "90 Greatest Washington Lawyers of the Last 30 Years" by the Legal Times in 2008. The University of Pennsylvania Law School has honored him with its Alumni Award of Merit and its Howard Lesnick Pro Bono Award. He has also received the District of Columbia Bar's Justice William J. Brennan Jr. Award, among many awards for his leadership and service.

THE ENDOWMENT

In 1991, the Foundation established The Florida Bar Foundation Endowment Trust into which Fellows pledges and other contributions are deposited as a permanent source of support for all of the Foundation's charitable purposes. The Endowment is a 501(c)(3) supporting organization to the Foundation. Endowment trustees are past Foundation presidents.

MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of The Florida Bar Foundation, a charitable organization established in 1956 by The Florida Bar Board of Governors and the Florida Supreme Court, is to provide greater access to justice in Florida. The Foundation accomplishes its mission primarily through funding of programs that:

- Expand and improve representation and advocacy on behalf of low-income persons in civil legal matters
- Improve the fair and effective administration of justice
- Promote public service among lawyers by making it an integral component of the law school experience.

The Foundation, a not-for-profit organization, encourages charitable gifts from individuals, foundations, law firms and corporations. Major gifts, planned gifts, and annual donations are received each year in support of the Foundation's mission and special projects.
