

THE FLORIDA BAR FOUNDATION
PUBLICATION CREDIT AND ACKNOWLEDGMENT OF FUNDING POLICY FOR FOUNDATION GRANTEES

In any grantee publication, including Web sites, annual reports, brochures, newsletters or news releases, where reference is made to funding sources, The Florida Bar Foundation should be listed. The Florida Bar Foundation logo may be included.

In instances in which The Florida Bar Foundation is a substantial funder of a project, the Foundation should be credited as a funder, or partial funder, of the project to the effect that: "The Florida Bar Foundation provides (partial) funding for this project."

In instances where the Foundation has funded a published study or report, any related news release or article should give credit to the effect that: "The Florida Bar Foundation provided funding for this study/report." The report itself should include on the back cover the logo for The Florida Bar Foundation, along with the credit: "With funding from The Florida Bar Foundation," followed by the Foundation's current address, telephone number and Web site. For an example, see the last page of "Pro Bono: Looking Back, Moving Forward" at: www.flabarfdn.org/downloads/pdf/pro-bono.pdf
