

FFLA
PUBLICATION CREDIT AND ACKNOWLEDGMENT OF FUNDING POLICY FOR FFLA GRANTEES

In any grantee publication, including websites, annual reports, brochures, newsletters or news releases, where reference is made to funding sources, FFLA should be listed. FFLA logo may be included.

In instances in which FFLA is a substantial funder of a project, FFLA should be credited as a funder, or partial funder, of the project to the effect that:
“FFLA provides (partial) funding for this project.”

In instances where FFLA has funded a published study or report, any related news release or article should give credit to the effect that: “FFLA provided funding for this study/report.” The report itself should include on the back cover the logo for FFLA, along with the credit: “With funding from FFLA,” followed by FFLA’s current address, telephone number and Web site.
