To increase access to the justice system for people of limited means, FFLA funds legal services, develops innovative tools and programs, and supports legal aid providers and the courts.

A message from FFLA leadership .....

I am immensely proud of FFLA's work and achievements in fiscal year 2023-24. Our board members and professional staff helped to achieve an extraordinary year of unprecedented accomplishments, growth and long-term, positive impacts on our mission to increase access to our great civil justice system in Florida.

After years of stagnation and unremarkable interest rates, FFLA had significant IOTA collections, ensuring a generational opportunity to build and expand our civil legal aid infrastructure. This remarkable milestone is thanks to the hard work and prudence of several groups, including the Florida Supreme Court, The Florida Bar, and the banks participating in Florida's IOTA program. We have all made this commitment to improving the IOTA rule and a system by which legal aid providers are sustained, ultimately benefiting less fortunate individuals who will experience the equalizing effect of legal representation and programs geared to their needs.

Another benefit of this generational milestone is the Florida Supreme Court's approval of our requested $142 million reserve for grantees, the first such reserve approved by the Court following FFLA's adoption of our Grantee Spending and Reserve policy. This reserve promotes stable funding to our grantees well into the future, while creating a legacy fund that will generate sources of additional income as a hedge against inevitable economic shifts and interest rate fluctuations.

It also provides essential security for the legal aid network we have worked so diligently to improve and support.

During this time, we enthusiastically welcomed (and continue to welcome) new organizations to our grantee family, further strengthening the network for delivery of civil legal services. New partnerships allow us to address previously underserved legal needs and geographic areas, bringing us closer to our goal of comprehensive access to our justice system for all.

The impact of our work is measured not just in dollars given, but in lives transformed. Behind every case number is, among other things, a family saved from eviction, a survivor protected from an abuser, an elderly person defended from exploitation, or a veteran connected to vital resources.

The achievements of this past year have set the stage for FFLA to contribute to a more robust legal delivery system for many years. Challenges remain, but with the continued support and partnership of our legal aid providers, the courts, lawyers, volunteers, and others, I am confident that we will continue to build a more just society where quality legal representation is available to everyone.

Impact: IOTA Distributions

While not directly represented, more than 90,140

low-income Floridians were nevertheless assisted by qualified legal services providers for matters like divorce, bankruptcy, adoption, eviction, wills, veterans' benefits, disaster relief, custody, and eviction.

From 2023 to 2024, THE NUMBER OF QUALIFIED legal services providers compensated or facilitated by the use of IOTA funds increased by 62%.

$33,870,910 IN IOTA COLLECTIONS were distributed to 35 legal aid organizations.

95%

more clients RECEIVED SERVICES paid for or facilitated by IOTA funds than the year before.

LEGAL AID PROVIDERS increased the number of pro bono attorneys in their networks by 31.4%.

AN INCREASE IN IOTA FUNDING resulted in a 14% decrease in the number of clients turned away due to lack of resources.

THE NUMBER OF HOURS SPENT DELIVERING QUALIFIED LEGAL SERVICES FUNDED BY IOTA

INCREASED BY 182%.

John, who had stage four cancer and was not expected to survive, approached Northwest Florida Legal Services for help transferring custody of his daughter to his mother. His legal aid lawyer filed a Petition for Temporary Custody by Extended Family Member and had a hearing scheduled. A few days before the hearing, John's mother died unexpectedly. Fortunately, legal aid acted quickly and helped John place his daughter in the custody of her aunt prior to his passing.

Legal Aid Society of Palm Beach County's Bankruptcy Assistance Program helped 78-year-old Calvin, who fell behind on his condominium dues and faced a lien on his home. He requested a payment plan but the options were unaffordable as his only income was Social Security and part-time work. Calvin sought legal assistance with a Chapter 7 bankruptcy to avoid foreclosure. His legal aid attorney secured a discharge of the entire debt, which was a huge relief for him.

Deanna, who is disabled, was trying to purchase a home with her husband. He had been paying child support for a child who was incarcerated, but the money had not been going to the proper account, making it appear that he had not been paying. The couple were denied a home loan. They sought help from Legal Aid Foundation of Tallahassee, which represented them and proved that child support had been paid. They redirected the child support to the proper place, and the couple was able to qualify for their home loan.

Lauren came to Legal Services of Greater Miami seeking legal assistance to change her name. A victim of domestic violence, Lauren had been diagnosed with PTSD, which was triggered every time she heard her name called, especially if it was suddenly or loudly. LSGMI represented her, filing a Petition for Change of Name on her behalf. The court granted her request, allowing her to legally adopt a new chosen name. As a result, Lauren has overcome a significant barrier and greatly improved her mental and physical well-being.

Impact: Legal Aid Summer Fellows

After a four-year pause due to lack of funding, FFLA brought back its Civil Legal Aid Summer Fellows program in 2024, through which Florida law students spend 10 weeks working at a legal aid organization. FFLA funded 10 fellows and The Florida Bar Family Law Section donated $37,500 to cover the cost of four additional fellows with expressed interest in marital and family law.

Celia visited Seminole County Bar Association Legal Aid Society seeking assistance in obtaining custody of her two nieces and nephew. Her sister, the children's mother, had been murdered by her estranged husband, who was violent and addicted to opioids. Celia was deeply worried the children would be separated if placed in foster care. She wanted to provide them with a safe, stable environment, enroll them in school and obtain grief counseling. Celia's legal aid attorney filed the emergency pleadings, and the court granted Celia custody, empowering her to properly care for the children and make decisions in their best interest.

Abby is now a happy six-year-old, but as an infant, her biological parents beat her and fed her heroin, resulting in a stroke. She is quadriplegic, uses a feeding tube, has cerebral palsy and is developmentally delayed. The State terminated the parental rights of her biological parents and an older couple adopted Abby and her siblings. Abby was one of 22,000 on a Medicaid Waiver Wait List to get medically necessary services. Florida State University College of Law's Public Interest Law Center filed a successful application for Medicaid Crisis Status, and Abby now receives services such as lifts to get out of bed, a wheelchair that fits her body and private duty nursing.

Ricky is now nearing completion of his GED and is connected to vocational rehabilitation, which will help him obtain employment and independence.*

Mission

To increase access to the justice system
for people of limited means,
FFLA funds legal services,
develops innovative tools
and programs, and supports
legal aid providers
and the courts.
