2025 MEDAL OF HONOR AWARD
FOR A LAWYER

JOSE A. VILLALOBOS, ESQ.

Jose A. “Pepe” Villalobos, Esq., an attorney with Akerman in Miami, is being honored with the Medal of Honor Award for a Lawyer for his exceptional legal acumen, dedication to justice, and advocacy for higher education and judicial diversity, which has left a lasting impact on the legal profession and South Florida community. Villalobos graduated from the Universidad Catolica Santo Tomas de Villanueva Law School in Havana, Cuba in 1959, as Fidel Castro rose to power. Faced with the requirement to pledge allegiance to the Castro regime to practice law, Villalobos chose exile over compromising his principles. In the U.S., he supported his family through various occupations—including work as a farm laborer, longshoreman, and roofer—while rebuilding his legal career. He earned a bachelor’s degree from Biscayne College and participated in a University of Florida program for Cuban lawyers, being admitted to The Florida Bar in 1976. Villalobos has served the public through extensive pro bono work and government appointments. Governor Bob Graham appointed him to the Marketable Record Title Act Commission and the Judicial Nominating Committee. During the 1980 Mariel boatlift, Villalobos provided pro bono representation for hundreds of unaccompanied children and earned The Florida Bar’s Pro Bono award. Beyond law, Villalobos helped to secure funding for Florida International University and facilitated innovations at Kendall Regional Hospital as chair. Villalobos has received numerous honors, including CABA’s Lifetime Achievement Award, the 11th Judicial Circuit Historical Society’s Legal Legend Award, and Miami-Dade County’s proclamation of “Pepe’s Day” in 2019.

2025 MEDAL OF HONOR AWARD
FOR A NON-LAWYER

MARIA HENDERSON

Maria Henderson, a consultant at Akerman in Jacksonville, is being honored with the Medal of Honor Award for a Non-Lawyer for her unwavering dedication to increasing access to justice for the vulnerable and her exceptional contributions as a non-lawyer advocate, making a transformative impact on pro bono efforts and Florida’s legal community. Henderson graduated with a degree in math and physics from the University of Florida and earned a master’s degree in information management from American University. She began her career in banking and gained experience at the Federal Reserve Board in Washington, D.C., where she helped develop an automated system to evaluate bank mergers and acquisition market effects. At Akerman, Henderson works with companies to navigate complex regulatory issues and create effective and compliant operations solutions. She also provides critical business support to Akerman’s Pro Bono Initiative, with a focus on communications and marketing, and increasing recruitment of the firm’s lawyers to do more pro bono work. In 2024, she helped lead a team to a litigation victory for a client fleeing persecution, devoting over 200 pro bono hours. From 2004 to 2014, Henderson served on The Florida Bar Foundation’s board, chairing various committees and becoming the organization’s first non-lawyer president in 2012. She has also served on Florida Legal Services’ Capital Campaign Committee and The Tampa Museum of Art Board of Trustees. Henderson has provided significant financial support for legal aid, including seed funding in 2019 for The Hon. William A. Van Nortwick Jr. Impact for Justice Fund, honoring her late husband.

2025 JANE ELIZABETH CURRAN DISTINGUISHED SERVICE AWARD

LESLEY MENDOZA, ESQ.

Lesley Mendoza, Executive Director of CABA Pro Bono Legal Services, is being honored with the Jane Elizabeth Curran Distinguished Service Award for her zealous advocacy of clients in need, innovative ideas for providing services to those in need of pro bono attorneys, and dedication to legal aid in Florida. Born in Miami to Cuban immigrants, Mendoza graduated from the University of Pennsylvania in 1998 and earned her law degree from the University of Miami School of Law in 2002. She initially worked at White & Case in New York as part of the firm's commercial litigation practice group before joining CABA Pro Bono Legal Services as executive director in 2013. She has transformed the organization through innovative leadership. In 2014, she developed a groundbreaking plan to recruit South Florida lawyers to staff immigration courtrooms, expanding representation for unaccompanied minors, which earned her recognition by the Daily Business Review as "Most Effective Lawyer in the Area of Pro Bono." Under her leadership, CABA has expanded from four to 29 staff members and developed comprehensive programs focused on human trafficking victim representation, domestic violence survivors, attorneys ad litem for foster children, veterans, and neurodivergent individuals. Mendoza has spearheaded growing CABA's immigrant children program, last year providing holistic representation for more than 1,000 children. Mendoza was named Child Welfare Professional of the Month in 2017 for her exceptional advocacy for a young adult in extended foster care. She consistently leads efforts to secure funding for legal aid and expand services throughout Florida.

PAUL DOYLE CHILDREN’S ADVOCACY AWARD

The Paul Doyle Children’s Advocacy Award honors Paul C. Doyle, founding director of The Florida Bar Foundation’s Legal Assistance for the Poor and Law Student Assistance grant programs (1991 - 2013) in recognition of his commitment to high-quality legal representation of Florida’s low-income children. The award recognizes and encourages systemic legal advocacy on behalf of low-income children by nonprofit Florida organizations.

In lieu of a 2025 award, FFLA honors the steadfast donors who contribute funding to Children’s Legal Services, the selfless pro bono attorneys who work on behalf of children in need of legal services, and the diligent legal aid organizations that have dedicated Children’s Legal Services programs.

2025 PRESIDENT'S AWARD FOR EXCELLENCE

LOU ANN POWELL
FORMER FLORIDA BAR FOUNDATION CFO

A certified public accountant since 1980, Lou Ann Powell joined the Foundation in 1991 and oversaw its fiscal administration, including governance, finance and investments. She earned a Bachelor of Science in business administration/accounting from Bowling Green University in Ohio. Before joining the Foundation, she served as corporate controller for a real estate development and management company in Central Florida and as division controller for a restaurant chain. Powell is remembered for her three decades-worth of contributions to the Foundation, her mastery of the game of bowling, her kind-heartedness, and her love of cats.

Former Florida Bar Foundation president John Patterson accepted his 2022 Medal of Honor Award on behalf of the access to justice community, specifically Powell. "She's always understood the necessity for integrity, accuracy and transparency in the finances of the Foundation. Lou Ann's hard work helped the Foundation grow and succeed, and her dedication to its mission will continue to inspire us. She will be remembered with fondness and respect by all who had the privilege of working with her."

For her dedicated service, strategic insight, attention to detail and steadfast support of The Florida Bar Foundation's mission and purpose, Lou Ann Powell is the recipient of the 2025 President's Award for Excellence.

“Where, after all, do universal human rights begin? In small places, close to home – so close and so small that they cannot be seen on any maps of the world... Such are the places where every man, woman and child seeks equal justice, equal opportunity, equal dignity without discrimination. Unless these rights have meaning there, they have little meaning anywhere.”

—Eleanor Roosevelt

Gelber Schachter & Greenberg PA
 proudly thanks
 Jose, Maria and Lesley
 for their commitment to equal justice for all.

Gelber Schachter & Greenberg

Carlton Fields is pleased to support the FFLA 2025 Award Ceremony and Breakfast

Congratulations to Jose A. “Pepe” Villalobos, Maria Henderson, and Lesley Mendoza on their well-deserved recognition. We applaud their dedication to pro bono service and their longstanding leadership in advancing access to justice for all Floridians.
