2024 MEDAL OF HONOR AWARD FOR A LAWYER

RET. JUSTICE PEGGY A. QUINCE

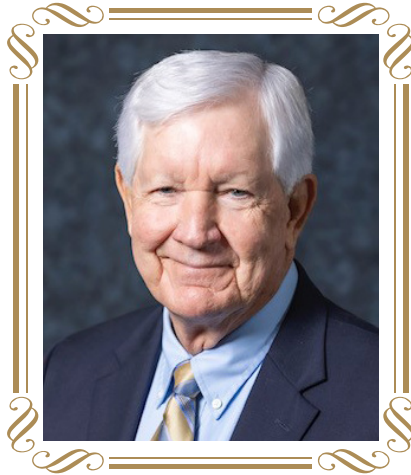

Ret. Justice Quince, who served as Chief Justice of the Florida Supreme Court from 2008 to 2010, is being honored with the Medal of Honor for a Lawyer for her decades-long legal and judicial career spent in service of the public, her extensive volunteer work on behalf of those less fortunate and her dedication to ensuring the halls of justice are open to all. After graduating from Howard University, Quince earned her law degree from Catholic University of America. She was a hearing officer with Washington, D.C.'s Rental Accommodations Office and worked in private practice in Virginia and Florida before becoming an assistant attorney general in Tampa, eventually becoming Bureau Chief. In 1993, Florida Governor Lawton Chiles appointed Quince to the Second District Court of Appeal, making her the first Black woman appointed to one of the district courts of appeal. Four years later, she was appointed to the Florida Supreme Court, again making history as the state's first Black female justice. While on the Supreme Court, Quince served as the liaison to the Florida Innocence Commission and led efforts to create a statewide, multidisciplinary Dependency Court Improvement Panel. After the housing bubble burst in 2008, Quince created a task force to establish procedures to efficiently handle the effects of mortgage and foreclosure cases. After retiring in 2019, Quince began serving on a panel that has reviewed DNA evidence and court records for more than 400 convictions in connection with the Hillsborough State Attorney's Conviction Review Unit. Quince is the recipient of dozens of awards, including the 2008 Lifetime Achievement Award from The Florida Bar's Government Lawyer Section and the 2003 Outstanding Jurist Alumni Award from Howard University.

2024 MEDAL OF HONOR AWARD
FOR A NON-LAWYER
DR. LAWRENCE W. “LARRY” TYREE

Dr. Lawrence W. “Larry” Tyree, who led nine separate colleges as president or interim president over his career, will receive the 2024 Medal of Honor for a Non-Lawyer for his leadership in and stewarding of others through the higher education system to promote equal justice and his devotion to serving The Florida Bar as a volunteer. Tyree earned his doctorate in education from Indiana University. He was president of Gulf Coast Community College from 1976 until 1988. During that time, he was the president of the United Way of Bay County, Fla. and the president of the Bay County, Fla. Chamber of Commerce. In 1990, Tyree began an 11-year term as the president of Santa Fe Community College in Gainesville, Fla. In the 2000s, he served as interim president at six different community colleges in Kentucky, Kansas, New York, Illinois and Florida. Tyree became the interim executive director of The Florida Bar Foundation in 2018. His involvement in the legal field started in 2012 when he was appointed to Florida’s 16th Judicial Circuit’s Nominating Commission by then-Governor Rick Scott. He then served on The Florida Bar’s Citizens Advisory Committee from 2013-16 and 2018-19 as its chair. He was also appointed to The Florida Bar Board of Governors by the Florida Supreme Court in 2015. Tyree has served on Florida’s Judicial Qualifications Commission as a gubernatorial appointee since 2019. Last year, he was inducted into the American Association of Community Colleges’ Hall of Fame and received the Hero Award from the Florida College System Council of Presidents as well as the Lifetime Achievement Award from the Association of Florida Colleges, an organization at which he served as Interim CEO for nine months on a pro bono basis.

RODERICK N. PETREY, ESQ.

Roderick N. Petrey, Esq., founder and principal of New Equity Partners and vice president and secretary of the P. L. Dodge Foundation, is being awarded the Jane Elizabeth Curran Distinguished Service Award for his decades-long service to the legal aid community, specifically through his founding of and work for the Florida Justice Institute. Petrey, who earned his law degree from Harvard University, is a Vietnam combat veteran, having served as a captain in the U.S. Army Special Forces, also known as the Green Berets, and a paratrooper with the 101st Airborne Division. He has continued to serve on FJI's board of directors since its inception. Petrey ran The Collins Center for Public Policy for 19 years, focusing on foreclosure mediation in the wake of the 2007 real estate crisis. Petrey also served as legal counsel for the John S. and James L. Knight Foundation from 1980 to 2012. He was the president of The Florida Bar Foundation from 1987-88. He was awarded the Tobias Simon Pro Bono Service Award in 1986, the highest award for pro bono service bestowed by the Florida Supreme Court. He has also received the "Spirit of Excellence" award from the Miami Herald, the Cal Kovens Distinguished Community Service Award from Florida International University, and the Juvenile Justice Award from the Florida Conference of Circuit Courts.

The Florida Bar Foundation's new name is FFLA! Though our name has changed, our mission, staff, board members and operations remain the same. We are rebranding to increase awareness and educate those outside of the legal community about the acute need for legal aid funding and the valuable economic impact of accessible, free legal counsel.

SUPPORT CHILDREN'S LEGAL SERVICES TODAY

There are more than 20,000 children in Florida's foster care system.

Your donation gives children like Jasmine someone to turn to by funding the legal aid staff who advocate for them.

Improve children's lives and support their dreams of a better future with your donation today.

*Pictured: Legal Aid Society of the Orange County Bar Association Staff
helped Jasmine navigate the foster care system. Jasmine, who is autistic, now lives on her own, has a part-time job, volunteers regularly and is in college.*
