CLOSING REMARKS Dominic “Donny” MacKenzie

2016 MEDAL OF HONOR AWARD FOR A NON-LAWYER
KEVIN GAY
FOUNDER & CEO
OPERATION NEW HOPE

Jacksonville native Kevin Gay left the corporate world and founded Operation New Hope in 1999 to help rebuild Jacksonville's challenged urban communities and give ex-offenders the opportunity to successfully transition home and lead productive lives. Operation New Hope is a faith-based nonprofit community development corporation with a two-pronged business model that includes the development of affordable housing and workforce development that focuses in on the reintegration of ex-offenders. In 2003, President George W. Bush selected Operation New Hope as the pilot site for the Ready4Work program, a prisoner re-entry program that has since been introduced in 16 U.S. cities and has been hailed by former President Bill Clinton and President Barack Obama. Participants attend a comprehensive four- to six-week career development training course featuring employment and life skills and are partnered with a case manager, who provides guidance and support, referrals for community assistance, life coaching and follow-up drug screening. While recidivism rates are nearly 70 percent within three years nationally, Jacksonville's Ready4Work program has a recidivism rate of less than 35 percent. Operation New Hope has helped more than 3,700 ex-offenders reenter their communities and workforce and has indirectly served their 7,200 children. In just over a decade it has restored or built close to 80 homes in the urban neighborhoods of Historic Springfield and East Jacksonville. Gay has received the Neighborhoods USA Notables Award, the Jacksonville Business Journal's Ultimate CEO Award, and the 2016 OneJax Humanitarian Award. He has served on the Florida Department of Corrections Prisoner Re-Entry Advisory Board, on President Barack Obama's Advisory Council for the White House Office of Faith-Based and Neighborhood Partnerships, and on the transition teams for Jacksonville mayors Alvin Brown and Lenny Curry.

2016 MEDAL OF HONOR AWARD FOR A LAWYER
KATHLEEN SCHIN McLEROY
SHAREHOLDER
CARLTON FIELDS

A shareholder with Carlton Fields and a member of the Florida Commission on Access to Civil Justice, Tampa attorney Kathleen Schin McLeroy is being honored for her innovative ideas to increase Interest on Trust Accounts revenue, her successful efforts to preserve county funding for legal aid, her leadership of organizations supporting pro bono at the national, state and local level, as well as more than 20 years of pro bono service to clients. A past Florida Bar Foundation president, McLeroy has chaired Carlton Fields' nationally recognized pro bono committee since 1999;

served four three-year terms on the Bay Area Legal Services board, including two terms as president; chaired the American Bar Association Business Law Section's
Pro Bono Committee; served on the ABA Commission on Interest on Lawyers' Trust Accounts; and was a liaison to the ABA Standing Committee on Pro Bono and Public Service. She currently co-chairs
The Florida Bar Standing Committee on

Pro Bono Legal Services; serves on the Bar's Vision 2016 Commission; and chairs the inaugural board of the Florida Justice Technology Center, a statewide nonprofit created with a $725,000 Florida Bar Foundation grant to increase access to justice through the innovative use of technology. McLeroy helped bring about a change to the Florida Bar rule governing Florida's IOTA Program that has yielded tens of millions of dollars in additional IOTA revenue in Florida and has been replicated in 35 states. She also helped lobby the Florida legislature to retain county funding for legal aid, preserving $8 million in annual funding for Florida legal services programs. She has been recognized with The Florida Bar President's Pro Bono Service Award; the Hillsborough County Bar Association's Jimmy Kynes Award for Outstanding Pro Bono Service; and the Outstanding Pro Bono Service Award from the Hillsborough Attorney Volunteer Efforts Program. She was honored in 2001 with The

THE ENDOWMENT

In 1991, the Foundation established The Florida Bar Foundation Endowment Trust into which Fellows pledges and other contributions are deposited as a permanent source of support for all of the Foundation's charitable purposes. The Endowment is a 501(c)(3) supporting organization to the Foundation. Endowment trustees are past Foundation presidents.

MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of The Florida Bar Foundation, a charitable organization established in 1956 by The Florida Bar Board of Governors and the Florida Supreme Court, is to provide greater access to justice in Florida. The Foundation accomplishes its mission primarily through funding of programs that:

- Expand and improve representation and advocacy on behalf of low-income persons in civil legal matters
- Improve the fair and effective administration of justice
- Promote public service among lawyers by making it an integral component of the law school experience.

The Foundation, a not-for-profit organization, encourages charitable gifts from individuals, foundations, law firms and corporations. Major gifts, planned gifts, and annual donations are received each year in support of the Foundation's mission and special projects.
